From the Pastor's Pen

Dear Parishioners of St. Joseph

Our School Board Members for the 2012-2013 School Year

My heartfelt thanks to our new school board members. This board facilitates a smooth working relationship among pastor, principal, faculty, parents and students. The board acts in an advisory capacity to the Pastor for the purpose of formulating and evaluating policies of the Archdiocesan School Office. The board also reviews policies relating to the planning, operation and maintenance of facilities and equipment at St. Joseph School.

My sincere thanks to the following school board members who will faithfully serve this coming year.

Parish Mystery Evening Out is the Evening of Friday, July 27th. . .

We have a wonderful evening out planned for those attending our second annual mystery night. We will be boarding the bus at 6:00 pm Friday, July 27th and heading to a mysterious destination with the scene set in the 1960's. Coolers are welcomed on the bus. Everyone in the parish is invited. . .please call Sandy at the parish office as soon as possible to reserve your spots!!!

Happy 72nd Birthday to Fr. Dyer

Our best wishes for a Happy Birthday go to Fr. James Dyer as he celebrates his 72nd birthday this coming Thursday. What a great day for all of us to say thank you to Fr. Dyer for his dedicated service to our parish family. We thank you Fr. James for answering God's call to serve as a priest. We are truly blessed to have you as our associate pastor!

Thanks for All That You Do Deacon Al Gegg!!!

Congratulations to Deacon Al Gegg who recently celebrated his 20th anniversary of the ordination of becoming a Deacon. Another perfect opportunity to say thanks to him for his tremendous dedication to our parish. He is one of the most humble, compassionate and caring Deacons that I have ever met. May God continue to bless Deacon Al with good health.

A Full Financial Report of our Parish Picnic will be Published in Next Week's Bulletin...

In next week's bulletin, you find a full financial report of our recent parish picnic. This year, by all accounts we had another successful picnic. We had a tremendous amount of stewards who faithfully volunteered to work at our picnic this year. Most of all, God truly interceded to make sure that the rain didn't fall. Thank you to everyone who made this year's picnic such a success. I look forward to sharing the report with you next weekend.

Pastoral Leadership Day to be Held on August 11th

Our fifth annual Parish Pastoral Leadership day will be held on Saturday, August 11th. This is such an important day for our parish. This is the day we set the top three goals for our parish for our 2012-2013 year. I always like to keep the question, “What kind of parish do you see us to be in ten years” alive in our hearts. Our Pastoral Council, our Finance Committee, and our School Board will be invited to attend this day.

Wow, We have 31 individuals Already Signed up For This Fall. . .

Do You Know Someone Who Would Like to Become Catholic? Please Invite Them to Join Our Inquiry Sessions of Our RCIA.

Do you know someone that has asked about our Catholic faith, someone who may be interested in joining our faith community? If so, I would encourage you to please take a moment and invite them to explore our inquiry classes.

The RCIA process has four distinct phases and celebrations. The first phase is known as the Inquiry session. It is here where the participants explore and ask any questions about Catholicism. This session ends with the celebration of the Rite of Acceptance as a catechumen. If you are interested in being on the RCIA team or being a sponsor, please call me for more information. Being on the team or being a sponsor is a great way to strengthen your own spiritual journey.

We Achieved our Annual Archdiocesan Catholic Appeal Goal!

Thank you to everyone who pledged so generously to our recent ACA campaign. At this time we reached and surpassed our parish established goal of $27,371 and have even surpassed our challenge goal of $53,441!! To date we have raised $53,815. Thank you for your generosity that will help so many of our brothers and sisters throughout the Archdiocese!

Our parish owes a tremendous amount of gratitude to Charlie and Rita Boyd for leading this year’s campaign. Our thanks also go to the numerous volunteers who helped to make the follow up phone calls.

And Finally. . .

“Always remember that as long as we keep the Eucharist the center of our lives, everything else will fall in place...of that I am confident”!!!

Blessings of Peace...Fr. Rickey

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts."

(Mark 6:8)

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our journey through life more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Yet, the more we can let go of, the freer we are to serve God with love and joy.

Together we pray for those who are sick. (Parishioners names are in bold.)

Please pray for: Penny Wyatt, Christine Booth, Helen Early, Rose Meade, Stephanie Webb, Henry Breier, Sr., John Fay, Rhonda LaPierre, Kathy Krechnyack, Cookie Loughary, Teresa & Doug Johnson, Mary Pyatt, Humberto Guerrero-Duran, Christina Morris, Mazie Roegner, Marilyn Yahnke, Charles deGruy, Ryan & Jenny Harrison, Sharon Boyer, Morgan DeClue, Andy Hamill, Paul Gremminger, Mercedes Grass, Kenneth Wilmoth, Ruth Basler, Harriet Lewis, Chris Ham, Macie Czaplá, Robert Herbst, Jane Bott, Danny McNamee, Julie McCarver, Maria Murdock, Spencer Vincent, Thelma Blake, Deloris Forsythe, Mr. & Mrs. Meloy, Don Porter, Paul Stevenson, Betty Krapf, Baylee Bockhorst, Fran Schneier.

If you need to add someone to the prayer list, please contact Pat Boatright at 756-4169.

Blessings and Glory

The second reading from Ephesians is rather long and with only six sentences, it is not easy to follow. If you take it apart, you see that Paul is very encouraging. He is giving a description of the many blessings God has given us.

He says that we are chosen by God and destined for spiritual blessings: First is Redemption, meaning that Christ saved us from punishment for our sins by forgiving them instead. Second is the plan of God for saving everyone, by making Christ ruler of the universe. We have to accept these gifts by letting go of the temptations around us and holding on to the love we have received from God. The things of the world, possessions, wealth, or power that pretend to make us happy are replaced with love of God; we then share that love with others, so that they know God loves them, too. As our experience of God's love grows, we begin to understand the mystery of how God lives in all people. Another blessing Paul notes is adoption by God to a new relationship as brothers and sisters of Christ; holiness is now for all believers, not just priests or religious.

Paul also reminds us that we are chosen and destined to help God bring his plan, his Kingdom, to completion. When we teach children how to love and share, when we are honest with customers or suppliers, when we are not ashamed to show our faith in Jesus, when we are respectful of the poor, elderly, or disabled, we are slowly building the Kingdom of God, or as Paul says, “to bring all things together in heaven and on earth under Christ” (Eph 1:10)

Paul mentions three times in this reading about “the praise of God's glory.” (Eph 1:14) When we are able to help or forgive, or just be a good example to others, we want them to know that God is in all the good we do. Instead of taking credit for the results, we give God the glory. No, you don't have to take off your glasses and put on a red cape before helping others. Just mention that God does the real work, we just try not to get in his way.
